Donna Pacini-Christensen & PALS Nancy Alumbaugh

Tom Kettleman Book – A Popular Holiday Gift

Lodi author Donna Pacini-Christensen is doing two book signings for her recently published children's book, Tom Kettleman The People's Turkey. On behalf of Lodi children, the author is donating 100% of the net profits from the book to PALS "Capital Campaign" to help fund construction for PALS HAVEN a new animal shelter in Lodi. The book was published on 12-03-14 and already more than 100 copies have been sold.

The first signing will be Saturday 12-20-14 from 12 noon until 4 P.M. at Double Dip Gallery owned by mural painter Tony Segale. Segale's unique art and ice cream gallery is across from city hall in Lodi at 222 W. Pine Street.

This benefit project is relying on the community and local press to help get the word out about the book. "Each day more people are coming on board with resourceful promotional ideas. The number of people in our Lodi community and in neighboring communities who are helping to get the word out about this book is incredible. This is a grassroots effort that is building momentum. Lodi kids are thrilled that their book about Tom Kettleman is growing in popularity. Every dollar we raise is being donated to PALS on behalf of the kids. They know this, they love it, and they are determined to sell a lot of books. It is such an honor to be part of this project with our community children." Donna Pacini-Christensen
